YES

PROP 15 — Reclaims $12 billion for our schools and communities by making wealthy corporations pay their fair share of property taxes.

PROP 16 — Removes barriers in hiring and college admissions for women, Black, Latinx, and Indigenous people and other people of color.

PROP 17 — Returns the right to vote for nearly 40,000 Californians who have been released from prison but are still on parole.

PROP 18 — Expands voting rights to 17 year olds in primary or special elections if they turn 18 by the next general election.

PROP 21 — Reforms a state law to allow local communities to enact caps on rent increases to ensure affordable homes for everyone.

NO

PROP 19 — Effort by real estate companies that allows wealthy families to avoid paying their fair share of property taxes on their homes.

PROP 20 — Funded by police and sheriff unions to overturn voter approved reforms and makes it easier to incarcerate people by allowing small crimes to be charged as felonies.

PROP 22 — Effort by Uber and Lyft that limits gig workers from getting fair wages and benefits guaranteed to employees and prevents unionization.

PROP 24 — Effort by real estate developers to establish a $10 million agency to enforce privacy laws and increase penalties against violators.
